- 9.9 In case Customer has a complaint with respect to an invoice, Customer shall communicate such complaint in writing to Evoswitch within the payment term in the absence whereof invoices are deemed to be approved of by Customer.
- 9.10 Customer shall not be entitled to any set-off, suspension or deduction of payment of an invoice.
- 9.11 If Customer does not pay an invoice within the payment term, Customer shall be in default by operation of law and Evoswitch will, without a warning or notice of default being required, charge Customer interest on such sum on a daily basis from the due date until the date of payment on the basis of the statutory commercial interest rate plus two percent (2%).

e) If Customer has timely contested Evoswitch's upward adjustment of the Service Charge(s) and Parties have not reached agreement on the upward adjustment of (a) Service Charge(s) within one (1) month of receipt of notice by Customer, the Parties shall jointly instruct an independent company specialized in benchmarking (Datacenter) prices, within six (6) weeks of receipt of notice by Customer. The Parties will request this independent benchmarking company to determine the average market-level prices for the Services and herewith agree that the independent benchmarking company's judgement, with respect to the average market-level prices for the Services, shall be binding upon both Parties. If the Parties fail to agree on which company should be appointed within six (6) weeks of receipt of notice by Customer, Evoswitch shall be entitled to request the president of federal courts of Prince William County, Virginia, USA, to appoint such independent benchmarking company. 10. SUSPENSION OF SERVICES

10.1 Evoswitch shall be entitled to immediately suspend the provision of any of the Services and/or to suspend Customer's right to access the Equipment on giving notice to Customer in the event that:

10.2 Customer shall remain liable for payment of all Service Charges during a suspension of Services.

10.3 Any exercise of such right of suspension shall not prejudice Evoswitch's right to subsequently terminate the Agreement or any other legal remedy available to Evoswitch.

10.4 Following suspension of the provision of the Additional Services and/or access to the Equipment, in accordance with Clause 10.1, Evoswitch may claim, and Customer shall pay upon demand, a deactivation charge in the amount of five hundred US Dollars (US$500.--), in relation to the (administrative) activities performed in order to suspend, or, if applicable, to recommence the Additional Services and/or Customer's access to the Equipment.

11.1 Evoswitch reserves the right to suspend the Additional Services and may suspend Customer's right to access to the Equipment in order to perform Maintenance.

11.2 Evoswitch will from time to time have to perform Maintenance in order to ensure a proper performance of the Datacenter and the Services. 12.4 In the event that Evoswitch relocates the Housing Space to a different Datacenter, Customer shall be entitled terminate the Agreement without liability, with effect from the end of the notice period referred to in Clause 12.2, if Customer has sufficiently substantiated its objections to the relocation with evidence that such relocation would (a) lead to a breach of contract under an agreement between Customer and Customer's client(s); and/or (b) adversely affect Customer's use of the Service(s), to such extent that Customer cannot reasonably be required to continue the Service(s).

12.5 In case the relocation of the Equipment is performed by Customer, as referred to in Clause 12.3, Evoswitch shall provide compensation to Customer for any reasonable costs, to be determined by Evoswitch, incurred by Customer as a result of the relocation, excluding the costs of any new interconnections that Customer may require or the procurement, delivery, and/or installation of any duplicate Equipment required to accomplish the relocation.

- 12.6 Without any prejudice to Clause 12.3, Evoswitch may, at its sole discretion, decide to relocate the Equipment for and on behalf of, and at the expense of, Customer.
